Amando M. Tetangco, Jr.

Board Member

Governor, Banko Sentral ng Pilipinas

Amando M. Tetangco, Jr. assumed office as Governor of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas in July 2005. He is a career central banker, occupying different positions in the organization in a span of over three decades. Immediately prior to his appointment as BSP Governor, he was Deputy Governor in-charge of the Banking Services Sector, Economic Research and Treasury.

As BSP Governor, he is also the Chairman of the Monetary Board, Anti-Money Laundering Council (AMLC) and Philippine International Convention Center (PICC); Vice-Chairman of the Agriculture Credit Policy Council (ACPC); Member of the Capital Market Development Council (CMDC), Export Development Council (EDC), PhilExport Board of Trustees (PHILEXPORT), Philippine Export-Import Credit Agency (PHILEXIM); and Director of Philippine Deposit Insurance Corporation (PDIC), National Development Council (NDC) and National Home Mortgage Finance Corporation (NHMFC).

He also represents the country in various international and regional organizations, including the Executive Meeting of East Asia and Pacific (EMEAP) Central Banks; ASEAN and ASEAN+3; South East Asia Central Banks (SEACEN); South East Asia, New Zealand and Australia (SEANZA); Center for Latin American Monetary Studies (CEMLA); and Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC). He is the Governor for the Philippines in the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the Alternate Governor in the World Bank (WB) and in the Asian Development Bank (ADB).

Before joining the Central Bank of the Philippines in 1974, Mr. Tetangco was connected with the Management Services Division of accounting firm SGV & Co.

Mr. Tetangco took up AB Economics at the Ateneo de Manila University where he graduated cum laude. He took up graduate courses in business administration in the same institution. As a central bank scholar, Mr. Tetangco took up his MA in Public Policy and Administration (concentration in Development Economics) at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, USA. Earlier, he finished his elementary and high school education at Don Bosco Academy in Pampanga.

Mr. Tetangco is married to Elvira Ma. Plana. They have three children: a son and two daughters.

Jose A. Nuñez, Jr.

Board Member

Chairman, Development Bank of the Philippines

Chairman Nuñez has built an extensive career in banking and business management. He was previously chairman of Asian Express Money Services Corporation, a company engaged in foreign exchange dealership, money changing and global remittance services. He was also former director and treasurer of Tranden Group, Inc, Universal LRT Corp. Ltd. and ULCOM Company Inc. He was also a former director of Philippine Veterans Bank, serving as Chairman of its board credit committee, and member of the executive and corporate governance committees.

He also served as Director of Camp John Hay Development Corporation, Northwood Resources Corporation, Citystate Savings Bank and Goldenville Holdings Corporation.

He was Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Federal Savings and Mortgage Bank from 1997-2000 until its merger with Security Bank Corporation; and Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Premiere Development Bank from 1982-1986 and 1989-1991. He was also affiliated with Allied Banking Corporation and Rizal Commercial Banking Corporation.

At present, Chairman Nuñez is a director and the treasurer of La Costa Development Corp., Agus 3 Hydropower Corp., and Bukidnon Hydro Electric Corp.

Chairman Nuñez has a Bachelor of Arts major in Economics degree (Honors Program) from Xavier University, and is a candidate for a Masters in Business Administration degree from the Ateneo de Manila University.

CECILIA C. BORROMEIO

Vice Chairman | President and Chief Executive Officer

President Borrromeo brings a wealth of experience in banking and management from Land Bank of the Philippines (Land Bank) to her new post in DBP. She started her banking career in Land Bank in 1989 and rose through the ranks to serve as Officer In Charge from August 1, 2016 to November 10, 2016.

She previously served as Executive Vice President of the Agricultural and Development Lending Sector of LBP where she managed the delivery of financial services for farmer organizations, MSMEs, local government units, GOCCs, corporations, other financial institutions, and consumer clients. She also performed oversight functions over LBP Insurance Brokerage, LBP Leasing Corporation, and Masaganang Sakahan, Inc. She also supervised the treasury, investment banking and global banking operations as EVP of LBP Institutional Banking Sector.

Borrromeo obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Agribusiness from the University of the Philippines, and underwent the Master of Business Administration program of the De La Salle Business School. She is a graduate of the Advanced Bank Management Program of the Asian Institute of Management and the Pacific Rim Bankers Program of the University of Washington Executive Education Foster School of Business. She likewise attended the International Study on Rural Banking and Finance at the Massey University in New Zealand.

CARLOS G. DOMINGUEZ III

Carlos "Sonny" Dominguez has over 40 years of experience managing various organizations in the public and private sectors. He was a shareholder, and board chairman or member of over a dozen corporations across various industries such as power, agriculture, mining, banking, hospitality, real estate, and investment.

Notable positions held by Sonny were Cabinet Secretary of the Environment and Natural Resources and Agriculture during the Presidency of Corazon Aquino, past president of leading Philippine corporations such as the Philippine Airlines and the Philippine Associate Smelting and Refining Corporation, and the former Bank of the Philippine Islands Agricultural Bank.

Sonny has a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Ateneo De Manila University and attended the Executive Management Program at the Stanford University.

Ramon M. Lopez
Secretary
Department of Trade and Industry

He started a solid professional economic, trade and industry development career in government from (1981-1993). Presidential Management Staff (1981), the Department of Trade and Industry (1982-1989) and NEDA (1989-1993). He has extensive experience in trade and industry development planning, at the forefront of the Tariff Reform Program, Industry development programs, setting up of ASEAN and APEC cooperation programs, technical studies on Countervailing Duty cases, critical consumer products' price structures and the development of the Foreign Investment Act. This included policy and program development, and project evaluation functions.

This was followed by a continuous career in the business sector (1994-June 2016), with over 22 years of experience, having been a top executive of RFM Corporation wherein he covered strategic planning and business development, marketing, mergers and acquisitions and equity investors group.

Simultaneously, he has been the Executive Director of the advocacy group Go Negosyo for the past 11 years (October 2005 - June 2016), initiating and implementing all its programs that empower the youth and aspiring entrepreneurs, micro and small entrepreneurs, the underprivileged sectors such as the PWDs, women and out-of-school youths. For the past 3 years, he has been co-hosting the weekly Go Negosyo radio program. He has also been giving lectures and mentoring to tens of thousands of entrepreneurs through Go Negosyo seminars, workshops, summits, books and social media.

With this extensive amount of experience in various government agencies, private sector and non-government organizations, Lopez has gained the admiration and respect of the business, financial and investor communities in the Philippines and abroad.

Ramon M. Lopez topped his Master in Development Economics at Williams College in Massachusetts, USA (1988) and finished his AB Economics degree at the University of the Philippines, Diliman (1981).

ERNESTO M. PERNIA, PhD

Dr. Ernesto M. Pernia is currently Secretary of Socioeconomic Planning and Director General of the National Economic and Development Authority. He is Professor Emeritus of Economics at the University of the Philippines.

Dr. Pernia has close to 18 years experience at the Asian Development Bank (ADB), starting as Economist, rising to Senior Economist, Principal Economist, and then Lead Economist. He developed and directed projects in various Asian countries on investment climate and productivity, economic growth and poverty reduction, education and health, human resource development, and regional economic cooperation. He led staff and a dozen consultants that produced the seven-volume study on the "East ASEAN Growth Area: Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines" (1996) – which provided the roadmap for the implementation of the landmark regional cooperation undertaking. He also represented ADB at various international development conferences in North and Latin America, Europe and Africa, besides Asia.

He has chaired the board of trustees of the University of San Carlos (2011-2014), having been a trustee since 2005; and was a director on the board of the Philippine-American Academy of Science and Engineering (2008-2013). Currently, he is on the board of Holy Name University (Tagbilaran). As well, he sits on the board of the Philippine-Russian Business Assembly, and previously on the board of the First Philec Solar Corporation. Further, he serves on the boards of a number of NGOs, including the Philippine Center for Population and Development, Forum for Family Planning and Development, Friendly Care Foundation, and Bahay Tuluyan, variously involved in promoting quality education and health, science and technology, poverty reduction, improved governance, and population and development.

Dr. Pernia had been Professor of Economics and Chairman, Department of Economics at the UP School of Economics, and previously Director for Research. He was a Visiting Research Fellow at the East-West Center Resource Systems Institute in Honolulu, and was Regional Adviser on population and employment policy for Asia and the Pacific with the International Labour Organization. He has served as a consultant to various international organizations, including the World Bank and UN agencies.

He obtained his PhD degree from the University of California Berkeley on a Ford Foundation scholarship and a Smithsonian Institution dissertation grant. He was granted the Balik Scientist award by the Department of Science and Technology (DOST). He received the first award as Outstanding Young Scientist (economics and social sciences) from the National Academy of Science and Technology. He is a former President of the Philippine Economic Society and Co-Chair of the Federation of ASEAN Economic Associations (1988).

He has written a number of books, numerous articles in international professional journals, and chapters of books. Dr. Pernia was chosen in February 2015 by the Philippine-American Academy of Science and Engineering (PAASE) for the Science Award. In March 2011, he received Achievement Award for social sciences from the National Research Council of the Philippines, DOST. In 2009, he was accorded The Outstanding Boholano Around the World award (economics). He is ranked 7th among 250 scientists in the Philippines according to Google Scholar Citations public profiles.

He was an occasional contributor to the Philippine Daily Inquirer Op-Ed column, and formerly to the BusinessWorld, and The Philippine Star Science section.
